9th October 1941.

The Collector & District Magistrate,
C & M Station, Bangalore.

Dear Sir,

I beg to inform you hereby that the newspaper concern run under the name and style of "Mysindia" has been bought over by me with all its right, title, name, goodwill and assets from the former Proprietrix, Mrs.L.M.Hawes and the Editor and Publisher Mr.A.P.Hawes on the 25th September 1941.

Mr.A.P.Hawes is no longer the Editor and Publisher of this paper and hence I would like to make the necessary declaration, declaring myself as the Editor and Publisher.

I shall feel much obliged if you could kindly allow me to appear before you to make the declaration and to sign the necessary documents.

Yours faithfully,
for Mysindia.

No. F.83(3)/40. Dated 8th December 1942.

12 DEC 1942

FROM

THE COLLECTOR & Press Adviser,
CIVIL AND MILITARY STATION,
BANGALORE.

To

D.N. Hosali, Esq.,
Editor,
"Mysindia",
Bangalore.

I have noticed some objectionable articles recently from the pen of your Sub-Editor, Mr. Krishna Shrinivasa. The article appearing in your issue of 14th November was particularly offensive. Apart from the obvious bad taste of much of it, the discourteous language used about the Prime Minister is extremely offensive to a large number of people.

There is more objectionable matter in the Sub-Editor's article in the issue of 21st November. If there is any repetition of this type of article and language, I am afraid, I shall have to take action against you, your Sub-Editor and Printer under the Defence of India Rules for publishing and printing prejudicial matter.

The suggestions in your issue of the 28th November regarding Censorship of news regarding the Cyclone in N. India are unwarranted and offensive and will also render

I must still object to the anti-British tone of Mr. Krishna Shrinivasa's articles appearing in Mysindia. I particularly refer to the views expressed in the above d/16-1-43 re: the surrender of extra-territorial rights in China by Great Britain and the U.S.A. Had these appeared in any of the Axis countries, Mr. Shrinivasa and you would probably have been convicted long before. Mr. Shrinivasa seems to interpret everything to Britain's dis-advantage.

The article in the issue of 23-1-43 re: the Burma offensive is also in very bad taste and is actionable under the the Defence of India Rules.

If such articles continue to appear, you and your sub-Editor can only be dealt with as pro-Enemy.

Copy of letter dated 4-2-43 from the Editor & Publisher, "Mysindia", Bangalore to the Collector & Press Adviser, C.& M. Station, Bangalore.

C.P 7(K) I write this to acknowledge receipt of your letter No.F.83(3)/40 dated January 27, 1943 contents of which have been noted carefully by me. I wish to assure you that every endeavour is being made to meet with your wishes and to carry out your instructions. I must, however, draw your attention to Mr.Krishna Shrinivasa's article on the front page of "Mysindia" dated January 30, which was written prior to the receipt of your letter and which clearly shows that we have no intention of deliberately interpreting everything to Britain's disadvantage.

Referring to the last paragraph of your letter, I must say that it is indeed unkind of you to call me "pro-enemy". I come of a family which has been consistently loyal to the British and today ninety per cent of my activities are connected directly with the war effort. And even "Mysindia", for a quarter page of criticism which it sometimes contains, carries fifteen pages of indirect propaganda for the British cause.
